Engage & Empower Your Child

Growing up with an Authoritarian Parent

My career as an educator started in 2004 and I have worked with families with children from 6 months old to 6 years old from all over the world with different cultures and background. I hold a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education and I am PCI Certified Parent Coach®. I am also a certified Positive Discipline Parent Educator and together with my experiences, my goal is to equip parents with strategies that will enable them to connect with their children in positive ways.

I am from Singapore and am fully bilingual in English and Mandarin. I have lived and worked in Singapore, China and England as a teacher, instructional coach as well as a school administrator in the early years sector. With a good understanding of both Asian and western culture, I am also able to support the families I have worked with to adapt to different cultures. I currently reside in Tucson, Arizona, USA.

What do people say about Jiani?

"The coaching sessions helped me change my mindset that paved the way on how I see things in a more positive way. The positive mindset helped me find my strengths that would help me deal with my children better and how to be kind to myself always and that I think is a good foundation in being a better parent." Astrid

"I felt comfortable speaking with Jiani because of her knowledge as well as background in early childhood education. Her advice were always encouraging and not commanding. With each session, I came away with specific and effective ways on how to deal with my parenting challenges." Jomari
